

„Homeland”, April 26. 1989

Fiddler becomes a major draw

Jerry Bock's musical "Fiddler on the Roof", one of the greatest Broadway box-office hits, has been mounted with huge success at the Tallinn-based Estonia Opera and Ballet Company.

The stage director, Georg Malvius from Sweden (kneeling in the photo), is the first Western director to work with the Estonia. The choreographer is Juhani Rytköla from Finland.

Photo by Toomas Volmer