

Opera Now

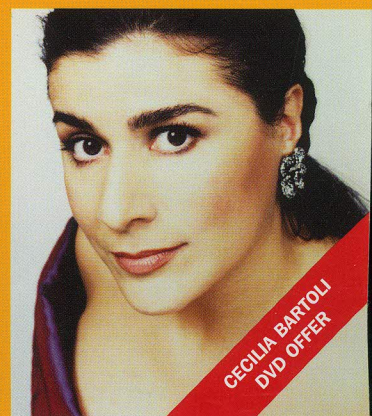

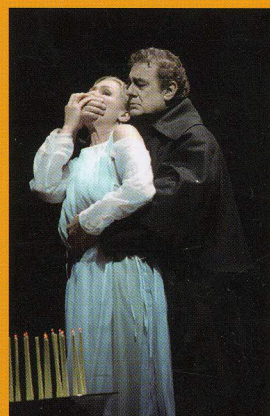

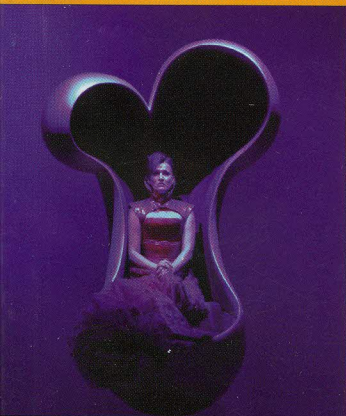

May/June 2004 £4.95

Summer Season

2004

CECILIA BARTOLI
DVD OFFER

Comprehensive worldwide opera and festival listings • International news and reviews • CD and DVD reports

Les Azuriales Opera Festival – basking on the Côte d'Azur in the South of France...
See page 43

Contents

MAY/JUNE 2004

6–12 & 129 News & Comment

- ◆ Washington Opera assumes 'National' status
- ◆ Room for two: accommodating opera in Boston
- ◆ Moscow's Helikon opera visits the UK
- ◆ Swansea City Opera launched

Plus:

International news in brief
Opera education and courses

14 In the wings

Opera Now meets opera people

- ◆ Anne Schwanewilms
- ◆ Jonas Kaufman

17 Memphis belle

Adrian Mourby reports from Opera Memphis' new state-of-the-art home

19 Design in opera

Rosy Runciman explores the glamorous world of Cecil Beaton

13 The Opera Now interview:

Mark Elder reveals his passion for the marriage
between drama and music
to Ashutosh Khandekar

Festivals 31–65:

◆ Full festival listings
and special reports from around the world

Wexford Festival 35

Les Azuriales 43

Garsington 46

22 Repertoire guide

Roderic Dunnett argues the case for an almost-forgotten
talent, Walter Braunfels

25 Aria

John Steane analyses interpretations of Andrea Chénier's revolutionary aria
'Un di all'azzurro spazio'

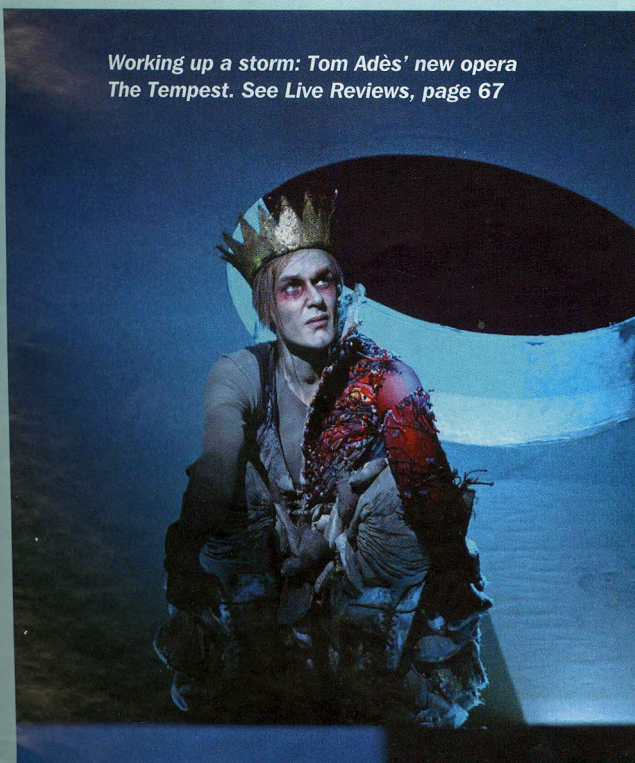

28 Postcard from Vilnius

Robert Thicknesse visits the Lithuanian town of Vilnius and discovers an opera company determined to make its presence felt

A Cecil Beaton costume
design for the opera Martinique. See Design in Opera on page 19

*Working up a storm: Tom Adès' new opera
The Tempest. See Live Reviews, page 67*

CLIVE BARDA

Regulars

- | | |
|--|-----------------------|
| Editorial 4 | CD reviews 115 |
| News in brief 6 | Opera in view 119 |
| Subscriptions 27 | Book reviews 122 |
| Live reviews 67 | Webwatch 124 |
| Young artist reviews 103 | Dear Louise 127 |
| In recital 107 | Letters 131 |
| CD features 112 | Tristan & Matilda 132 |
| Centre-stage: Can Italy afford to pay for opera? 134 | |